

The atmosphere is very casual. There are no hectic schedules nor any rushing about. You'll be in expert hands. It couldn't be better.

Information & bookings

Camel Safaris

eco-accredited

The historic Peake 'Overland Telegraph Line' repeater station ruins

Peregrine Falcon, the world's fastest animal and a spectacular hunter

Water Holding Frog, stores water in its bladder and pockets under its skin

Trekking through the remote and beautiful Australian Outback

Gould's Sand Goanna, ubiquitous throughout the Australian deserts

For up-to-date information, trek schedules, online booking and credit card payment, please visit our web site:

www.austcamel.com.au/explore.htm

Camel Safaris - 4 days

Incorporating 4 nights. Meet Thursday afternoon. Ends Monday at noon. (April - October)

School / Tertiary educational camps

By arrangement

Extended expeditions

By arrangement

Contact details

Explore the Outback Camel Safaris
PMB 118 William Creek
via Coober Pedy SA 5723

Toll free: 1800 064 244
Telephone: +61 8 8672 3968
Facsimile: +61 8 8672 3990
email: explore@austcamel.com.au
Web site: www.austcamel.com.au/explore.htm

See our website for cost details. Note: All bookings require a 10% non-refundable deposit at time of booking.

General Conditions Insurance

'Explore the Outback' or contractors connected with these treks shall not be liable for any illness, injury, damages, loss or delay howsoever caused to the traveller whilst engaged on these treks or any related activity. We highly recommend all participants have travel insurance to provide such cover.

Concessions

Students 15%
Pensioners 15%
Family 20% (Minimum 4)

Safety

A first aid kit is carried at all times. Participants should be mindful of their personal safety and follow or seek the advice of the leaders. Water is a precious commodity in the outback and should be conserved.

Adverse Weather Conditions

As 'Explore the Outback' operates in a pioneering spirit it is subject to the impositions created by inclement weather conditions. Every effort is made to ensure schedules are adhered to but no guarantee is given in this regard.

Minimum Tour Participants

A minimum of 6 persons for the 4 Day Treks is required.

Prices

Subject to change without notice.

Your Travel Agent

The Outback in perspective

Award winning research operator

An exploration of Outback wilderness and heritage

Specialists in conservation and nature-based camel trekking experiences in South Australia's far north.

- › We focus on ecological and historical themes.
- › No two trips are the same.
- › Wildlife identification and survey.
- › Environmental conservation.
- › Historic / Heritage conservation.

Our secluded destinations are quietly accessed by pack and riding camels.

Our work is low impact, environmentally friendly and extremely interesting.

So join us, be a part of our work and help shape our knowledge of the Australian Outback.

How to get there

It is necessary to make a prior booking.

Telephone, toll free: 1800 064 244

(see also back page)

Travel options

- › Go to Coober Pedy
(The Opal Capital of the World) - then come to William Creek on our transit service.
- › or ... drive yourself to William Creek.
That's it! We'll meet you there.

Where we are

What to bring

Travel-light is pre-requisite.

You should include:

- › Hat / sunscreen / lipcream
- › Warm clothes for evenings
- › Small water bottle
- › Comfortable sturdy footwear
- › Light sandals for evenings
- › Sleeping bag (warm)

What's included

- › Professional guidance and interpretation
- › Camel riding and adventure
- › Camp-fire cooked meals including vegetarian options
- › Swag or canvas bedroll (BYO sleeping bag)
- › A look at many of the desert plants & animals that you definitely wouldn't see on a conventional tour

Relax

Your safety and security is ensured through close contact with the world famous Royal Flying Doctor Service.

Our trek camels are clean, experienced and extremely trustworthy.

More to see than meets the eye